

New State Council of County Representatives

Ratification Process and Representative Election

The people you elect will represent your county in the CCR. They should be people with the time and commitment to attend both the CCR meetings and meetings in your county so they understand who they represent and what their desires are. Alternates will attend CCR meetings and be available to function as the representative in their absence from a CCR meeting.

1. Call a New State County committee meeting or town hall that is publicly advertised and open to the public.
 - A) Invite a CCR Ambassador to present the charter and answer any questions that may arise in your meeting.
 - B) Create an agenda and attendee sign in list
 - C) Have enough copies of the Charter for attendees
 - D) Prepare a paper ballot for Charter and delegates
2. At the meeting:
 - A) Have people you don't know sign a support petition before letting them into the room, that should keep out any potential disruptor's.
 - B) Have an election of a county Chair and Secretary if none currently exist.
 - C) Present an introduction to the Charter with a brief history of our New State movement and what the Charter are intended to accomplish.
 - D) Do a reading of the CCR Charter
 - E) Discuss the charter with a question and answer session
 - F) Vote yes or no on charter
 - G) Nominate perspective candidate(s) for Representative, Alternates 1 & 2 and have them give a short presentation about why they would like to serve.
 - H) Have a vote by show of hands for each nominee.
 - I) Record the vote and report to attendees.
3. After meeting:
 - A) Report the ratification and election results to the CCR Founding Committee at mendocino@newstateccr.org
 - B) Maintain records including Agenda, meeting minutes and election results.

Amendment Process

The request for an amendment should be voted on and approved by a majority of your county committee. Submit approved change requests to mendocino@newstateccr.org.

Upon receipt of a request it will be submitted to CCR, at its next meeting, for consideration. If the request is approved by the CCR Founding Committee, new charters will be sent to counties that have ratified.

I have been involved in the New State Movement from inception. My county has a very active committee that meets every two weeks, engages in community outreach, and understands fully the importance of keeping the New State Movement before the public. We also understand the importance of developing a strong governance structure that provides each county with a representative with equal standing to help guide the New State Movement. I am committed to a clear guiding document that all agree will help us achieve success.

I am willing to listen to, talk with anyone that would like a New State in any county that would like to ask.

Rick Johnson, exdurian@hotmail.com, Mendocino County

Retired Chemical Engineer with a major oil company. Lived and worked 18 years in non-first world countries. A native Californian with roots back five generations where my ancestor entered the timber business and founded the thriving little city of Point Arena on the south Jefferson coast. Got interested in politics when Prop. 13 was finding its way onto the ballot. Have been studying and learning about this country's founding documents and would like to see a New State be founded along the lines of the same principles.

Computer Science Professional and student of political/economic liberty.

Government no longer has the consent of the people. Time to return the power back to the people where it belongs.

As an ardent supporter of forming a New State, I want to build a stronger movement through the empowerment and organization of county committees. With an effective CCR we will be ready to become a new state however the opportunity arises.
